A. Leitch, of Cranbrook, was in town on Saturday.

A. J. Albert, of Calgary, was doing business in town this week.

Miss Beatrice Westwood is confined to her bed suffering from acute pneumonia.

FOR SALE.—Plain stationery, good quality, at bargain prices. At Coleman Miner Office.

The Pastime Pool Room is receiving a coat of paint and when completed will have a very attractive appearance.

The Coleman Lodge, No. 36, I. O. O. F., will hold their anniversary service in the Institutional church on Sunday, April 25th.

N. W. Neil, who has been visiting friends in the east during the past three months, returned to Coleman on Saturday last.

E. O. McGinnis, representing the British Trust & Investment Co., is doing business in town, selling North Vancouver property.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crossfield are spending a few days with friends at Cowley after which Mrs. Crossfield will visit some friends in the States.

John Harrington, the Socialist organizer for British Columbia, came to town on Sunday and addressed a Socialist meeting at the opera house on Sunday evening.

John Nathan has severed his connection with the Coleman Hardware Co. and leaves in a few days for Princeton, B. C. where he will devote his time, in future, to fruit raising.

BORN.—On March 27th, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kiege.

On the same date, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Adam Morris.

On March 31st, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Fila-Filo.

The Coleman Hardware Co. are making extensive alterations in their building. The stairway, has been reversed and put inside of the building. The second floor is being transformed into a furniture department.

The Stutz Big Theatre Co. played here three times this week. The performances were good, the audiences were small but appreciative. After the play on Wednesday night many merry couples indulged in dancing.

Farguharson and Bolsjoff propose closing down their camps next Saturday and will probably commence operations again next August. They contract with the International Coal & Coke Co. being practically completed.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company have found it necessary to increase their storage room and are about to build an addition on the east end of the depot, forty ft. in length and same width as the present building. The lumber and other materials for the addition are on the premises and work will commence next week.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL COAL & COKE CO., LTD. Gentlemen, The Directors beg to present to the shareholders their fifth annual report, for the year ending 31st of December, 1908, together with statement of Assets and Liabilities.

The net profits for the year, after paying all operating expenses at head office and mine, amount to $284,210.72 which sum has been derived from the various departments of the Company's business, together with the sale of coal and coke, receipts on account of lots sold from the Company's townsite, and returns from water and electric light supplied by the Company to the people of Coleman.

On the 1st of February, 1908, a dividend of 2% on the capital stock of the Company was paid, 2% on the 1st of May, 14% on the 1st of August and 1st of November respectively, making in all 14% aggregating $182,000 and, as you will see by reference to the balance sheet, the handsome sum of $102,210.72 was carried to surplus account, for the year.

The total amount of the pay roll for 1908 was $505,316.73; average number of men employed 580; days worked 230; the average tonnage being 1887. During the year there were additions made to the plant (expenditure under this head being $128,050.07) which include new machinery and equipment, additional coke ovens and cottages, all of which were deemed necessary in the Company's best interests and approval by the Board.

All of which is respectfully submitted. 25th March, 1909. President.

ANOTHER STORE OPENED

Bert White who has been in Coleman during the past three years and during the past two years head clerk in the Coleman Mercantile company's store, has opened a business of his own. Mr. White is carrying a full and well assorted range of gents' furnishings, and occupies the premises known as the "old post office." On the 1st of June Mr. White will vacate the building now occupied by him and remove to the store now occupied by W. L. Bridgeford.

Bert is one of Coleman's leading young men and it is safe to say that he will quickly work up a large and successful business for himself, thus adding another up-to-date store to the many other successful businesses carried on in Coleman.

His former employer will continue to operate in the same building, Coleman, on Sunday at 11 a.m.

C. H. Simpson, brother of D. C. Simpson, of the Coleman Mercantile, and Mrs. Simpson, of Winnipeg, who have been touring the western states and also British Columbia during the past three months, were in town this week visiting friends. They left for the east on Tuesday. Mr. Simpson was greatly pleased with this part of the country and said that Coleman far exceeded in general appearance any town of its size that he has visited.

The moving picture show at the opera house on last Friday night was very good and included many novel features, amongst them the celebrated flight of the forgotten ones, under Angole guidance, to the strains of a popular waltz played by our local Paderewski. Some of us would naturally expect the strains of more solemn harmony such as "Nearer my God to Thee" but instead we had a most successful and popular music.

Our editorial and many important news items which are crowded out of this week's issue, will appear in our next.

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN F. H. SHERMAN AND L. STOCKETT

(Special to Coleman Miner.)

Macleod, March 31st.—It is learned here that the miners employed by the Western Coal Operators' Association have been instructed by F. H. Sherman, President of district 18, U.M.W. of A., to suspend work immediately. The following correspondence has just taken place:

Macleod, Alta., March 31, 1909.
Lewis Stockett, Esq.,
Pres. Western Coal Operators' Assoc.
Dear Sir,

I beg to inform you that the workmen employed by the Western Coal Operators' Association, in their various mines, coke ovens, and outside plants have been instructed to suspend operations at the expiration of their agreement until such time as a satisfactory agreement is arrived at between District No. 18 and the companies comprising the Association. We are ready at any time to enter into further negotiations upon the lines as stated by me today while in conference with you.

Yours truly,
F. H. SHERMAN,
Pres. Dist. No. 18 U.M.W. of America.

Macleod, Alta., March 31, 1909.
F. H. Sherman, Esq.,
Pres. Dist. No. 18, U. M. W. of A.
Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of this date and note that you have instructed the workmen employed by the Western Coal Operators' Association in their various mines, coke ovens and outside plants to suspend operations at the expiration of their agreement until such time as a satisfactory agreement is arrived at between District No. 18 and the companies comprising the Association.

I trust that you have fully considered the legal consequences of your action and that you are prepared to accept the responsibility that such action involves.

To prevent any misapprehension on the part of those actually interested I deem it advisable to direct your attention to the following facts:

On the fourth day of May, 1907, an agreement in writing was entered into between The Western Coal Operators' Association of the one part and the employees of the various companies comprising such Association, as represented by the United Mine Workers of America, District No. 18, of the other part, embodying the terms and conditions under which coal was to be mined at their various collieries "for the period of two years commencing April 1st, 1907 and ending March 31st, 1909."

It was one of the terms of that agreement that the parties thereto would meet in conference sixty days prior to the expiration thereof to discuss its renewal.

On the 12th day of January 1909 our Association met the officers of your Union at Lethbridge for the purpose of discussing a renewal of the said agreement and it was agreed that a further meeting should be held at Macleod commencing on the 2nd day of March, at which time and place a scale committee consisting of seven operators and seven representatives of your Union commenced negotiations for the purpose of renewing the said agreement and after conferences extending over a period of upwards of three weeks, during which time John B. Morgan representing T. J. Lewis, International President of the United Mine Workers of America, was present, the terms of an agreement were finally agreed upon and the scale committee disbanded. The Crow's Nest Pass Company having for business reasons and before the completion of the negotiations withdrawn from membership in the Operators' Association.

After the negotiation of the agreement by the scale committee the conference adjourned to enable the agreement to be submitted to a referendum vote of the miners and it was agreed that in the event of the agreement being adopted by a majority of the miners, the presidents of your Union and our Association should arrange for the execution of the agreement. According to the 29th instant, having been advised that a majority of the miners had adopted the agreement, I met you at Fernie and it was arranged that we should meet at Macleod on Wednesday the 31st instant to execute the agreement, provided your solicitor could be present on that date and on Tuesday last I received a telegram at Home from you stating that your solicitor would be at Macleod today,

Wednesday, and I accordingly advised the representatives of the various companies, who are members of our Association, to attend at Macleod today and arranged for our solicitors to be present. Pursuant to these arrangements, we met this afternoon when, to the surprise of every operator present, you at once stated that as The Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company had executed an agreement since our last meeting different in terms from that agreed upon between us, you would not sign any agreement not along the lines of the agreement of that Company. In reply I pointed out to you that we were present to sign the contract agreed upon between us and thereupon you and your associates withdrew from the meeting after advising that the agreement which had been negotiated by the scale committee and been submitted to and approved by a majority of the miners on a referendum vote. Shortly after the breaking up of the meeting I received your letter stating that the miners had been instructed to suspend work. It must, I think, be apparent that the responsibility for the failure to execute the agreement, which had been concluded after protracted negotiations, and for any loss and inconvenience that the public may sustain or suffer must rest, not with the members of this Association nor with the miners who you have accepted and adopted the agreement submitted to them, but with yourself.

On behalf of myself and the other members of our Association I must again express regret at your refusal to execute the agreement and that you have chosen to instruct the suspension of work in the collieries of this country, involving the entire idleness of thousands of workmen.

Yours truly,
LEWIS STOCKETT,
Pres. Western Coal Operators' Assoc.

Correspondence

A. CAMERON WRITES
(To the editor of Coleman Miner)

Dear Sir,—
In last week's issue of your paper I read a communication from one who signs himself "A Resident." I have no fault to find with the complaints he makes; indeed they are a nuisance to me. I am a resident of Coleman Village Council I would inform our friend that the Council is powerless to act, for the reason that Slav Town is beyond their jurisdiction. The animals left dead beside the C.P.R. track and the unsanitary state of the closets at the depot are matters pertaining to the office of that Company alone—the C.P.R. premises being outside the corporation and private property. At the last meeting of the Council a sanitary inspector was appointed and his instructions are to carry out the law irrespective of whom it may affect.

May I suggest to "A Resident" a remedy, that is to take the necessary steps to incorporate Slav Town with Coleman, you need a road or street extended so as to join the main street of Coleman. I do not think the blowing up of the rock bluff which divides us would be too big an undertaking with which assistance we could reasonably expect from the Alberta Government. You need your streets rounded up, pure water introduced, some electric lights to light the dark spots and make travel safe and pleasant.

The Coleman Council have no desire to shirk the responsibility of their public duties but it is up to the inhabitants of Slav Town to bring themselves within their jurisdiction, and I venture to believe that the of Citizens Coleman will meet them in anything that is reasonable.

ALEX. CAMERON,
Chairman of Council.

O'BRIEN ELECTED—MAJORITY 35

Alex. Cameron returning officer for the Rocky Mountain Constituency summed up the vote Thursday and found as follows:—H. E. Lyon, Conservative, 392; J. A. McDonald, Independent, 520; C. M. O'Brien, Socialist, 555. Two ballots rejected, 5 spoiled, 6 cancelled, 2 declined, and 1 disputed.

Mr. Cameron declared C.M. O'Brien, of Calgary, elected.

GREAT EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

The great evangelistic campaign, to commence here on Sunday next, and to continue to the 25th of April promises to reap good results. Meetings will be held at 8 o'clock every evening, except Saturday, in the Institutional church. Rev. A. E. Mitchell, of Knox church, Hamilton, Ont., and R. McBretny will arrive at Coleman tomorrow (Saturday). On the 14th Mr. McBretny will leave and his place will be immediately taken by another high-class singer in the person of A. Berlis. Everybody is cordially invited to attend the meetings.

DIED.—On Friday last Catherine, darling child of Mr. and Mrs. David Reid, aged 4 years.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Held by Coleman Aerie, F.O.E.

In Opera House on Sunday
—Large Gathering

The 2nd annual memorial service of the Coleman Aerie, F. O. E., was held in the opera house on Sunday afternoon last. The service was impressive, the attendance large and the day was fine, excepting that a little chilly wind blew for a while.

The brethren met in their hall at 2 p.m. and at 2.30, formed in procession, headed by the Coleman brass band, and paraded to the opera house, where W. P. J. Johnston Graham, opened the service in a short address and was followed by prayer by the W. C. A. Morrison. Upon the roll being called by the W. S. H. Gate, the demise of two from their ranks was announced. Rev. T. M. Murray who made a lengthy and appropriate address said that today is your memorial service. Next to a funeral service comes a memorial service—it is solemnity and sorrowful. He wished to say something about memorials which we are making from day to day. Every man is erecting his memorial. The speaker wished that we could bury the memorials of some men as we bury their bodies; they stink like Sodom and her sisters. God destroyed them for the memory of their sin.

He spoke of the cowardly conduct of ancient Jonathan and Josh. Judas sold the greatest Thing in the world for a small price. His memory still lives but stinks. The memory of some men inspires. It entwines around ones and befriends and inspires him to greater things. Men be true to death and the world will be better for having you in it. Too many of us wobble; we are not able to withstand the evil temptations.

BLAIRMORE

The marble season is on again.
Miss K. Foreman left for her home in Lethbridge, last week.

Thomas Davidson who has been ill for some days is out again.

Rosalta is again in training and promises well for the coming season.
T. Stewart will have charge of the Cement Companies line kilns here, this season.

McLaren's mill will start operations this week. About 30 men will be engaged this season.

Mr. McDonald, millright at McLaren's mill, who recently returned from the east, is quite ill.

W. A. Beebe has two residences in the course of erection. Frayer & Sinclair have the contract.

James Dougal has purchased several lots from H. S. Pelletier and proposes erecting residences for rent.

Blairmore citizens are wearing smiles these days. Prospects for a boom this spring are very bright.

The Rocky Mountain Cement Co. have quite a number of men engaged and work on their plant is being rushed.

H. S. Pelletier has ten men at work preparing the ground for his large brick plant which will be installed shortly.

J. Menard, secretary of the West Canadian Collieries, has purchased a lot in the Pelletier addition and will erect a residence thereon at once.

Blairmore has still got the political fever and a great many elections have taken place since polling day. Some are counted in and others out and vice versa each day. Blairmore can beat the town in the art of "hot air shooting."

The West Canadian Collieries have now 15 men at work developing their property. A very fine seam of coal has been opened up a sample car of coal will be shipped this week. It is understood that more men will be put to work in the course of a few days.

The largest crowd that have ever attended a moving picture show in Coleman was on last night (Thursday). All the pictures were high-class and were well put on. They are showing again tonight.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH WEST*HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even-numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 3 and 36 and reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family or any male over 18 years of age to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy, however, by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of any intending homesteader.

Duties—(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the same locality as the land to be homesteaded. He may also do so by living with father or mother on certain conditions. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

B. C. COPPER COMPANYWILL CONTINUE WORK

Nelson, B. C., March 20. The News says:—That the B. C. Copper company will not close down its smelter at Greenwood and that it will continue its mines in full operation, is the cheerful announcement that The Daily News is able to make this morning. J. E. McAllister, manager of the company, gave the News the following statement over the telephone from Greenwood yesterday:

"The smelter and mines of the company will continue to operate without any change. This reversal of the determination to close down is the result of telegraphed instruction from New York. The improved outlook for the copper market is the reason for the change of plan. The notices posted on the company's property announcing the closing down on April 1 were torn down today and the company will carry on as usual."

News was received yesterday from an independent source that the B. C. Copper company would continue its smelting and mining operations and Mr. McAllister, reached by long distance telephone from The News office, gave out the foregoing statement. The fact that the B. C. Copper company is to continue its operations is itself very encouraging to all interests in the interior, but the additional fact that its directors regard the market prospects in metals as improving has a broad and welcome significance for all copper mining interests in the province.

A SPACIOUS SCHOOL HOUSE

To Cost $10,000.00 Is Decided on by Ratepayers—Increase of Scholars Demands It

The attendance at the schools have grown to such proportions as to require larger accommodation. Plans of a proposed addition to the present larger school house have been prepared by Smith Bros. & Wilson and a meeting of the ratepayers to take place on Tuesday night was called for to consider this matter.

The meeting took place in the school house on the night above stated and A. Cameron, the chairman, opened the meeting by stating that the school inspector had informed the trustees that extra accommodation for the scholars had to be provided immediately, and to comply with this request the board had made arrangements to rent a room for a while. The matter of the proposed addition was then dealt with for some time. The proposed addition will cost about $10,000.
Two of the new rooms will be occupied by the infant classes while the remaining two rooms will not be occupied for a little while. We have no choice in this matter, said the chairman, it is a thing which has to be done. This will entail a large sum of money, but owing to the rapid increase of attendance something must be done immediately. The assessment at present is $805,383, and next year we expect an increase of at least $100,000.

At present we have a debt of about $500 to pay this year and $500 to pay next year, on the present building and $400 for the ground; this will wipe out the present total debt on the school property. The chairman thought that it was well for the ratepayers to know this and have their say in the matter, hence the reason for calling this meeting. There are 35 scholars in Mrs. Jobbie's room with an average attendance of 65, and 45 in Miss McNab's room and the average attendance being 32. There is much talk, continued the chairman, of having a high school here. In building the four rooms we would be able to make provision for this.

Mr. Graham said that the present rooms would be improved by steam heat instead of having hot air. The basement and ground floor would be concrete, thus making it fire proof.
A septic tank would be installed outside of the building.

J. O. C. McDonald moved and H.
Gate seconded that the plans laid before the meeting be approved of by the meeting.

The chairman said that this matter was worthy of much consideration.
The motion was put and unanimously carried.

BOXING CONTEST AT CARDSTON
(By our own correspondent. Received too late for last week's issue.)
The fifteen round boxing contest which was pulled off here last Monday, the 22nd of March, between Walter Johnson and Charles Clark, was one of the fastest and best ever seen in this place. Both men being very willing and quick to take advantage of every opening. Clark did some very fast foot work and played mostly for Johnson's head and face while Johnson worked hard on Clark's body.

Both men showed marks and a free flow of the claret at the end of the second round, which were very much in evidence to the close of the fifteen round.

Referee Charles Bermitt, of Calgary, called the bout a draw. This decision was accepted by great cheers by the large audience.

Before the main bout took place two very good preliminary bouts were pulled off by some of the local boys.

The boxing contest so pleased the Cardston sports that Clark and Johnson have been requested to come together again in Cardston sometime in April. But Johnson says that he would rather meet Clark in Coleman as Clark is making his home in Car-dston while Johnson feels at home in Coleman.

Much has been said about the proposed bout, between William Burrows and Walter Johnson, which will take place at Frank on April 17th.

A WHISTLER WHIM.

The Artist Whistles Argues About His Birthplace or Age.

James McNeill Whistler had no patience with those people who would insist upon inquiring into two details of his biography in which he professed, and professed with some sincerity, that he was not interested. These details were his age and his place of birth.

It was once mentioned in a Parisian paper that Whistler was born in Baltimore. Although this was contrary to fact, Whistler could not be induced to correct it. The mistake was copied over and over again, and angry patriots from Massachusetts, accidentally the birthplace of this citizen of the world, would write impassioned letters to him asking him to deny the lie. All he could be prevailed upon to say was, "If it pleases my one to have me born in Baltimore, let me be born in Baltimore." An individual hailing from Lowell, Mass., once apostrophized him in the generally inapplicable manner which certain people regard as etiquette in addressing a man of genius upon a first introduction.

"Mr. Whistler," said the stranger, "I am eighty years of age and don't remember being born in Lowell, Mass." "New York Telegraph.

ON AN OCEAN LINER.

It Doesn't Pay to Get Haughty With

"Never, oh, never, speak harsh words of rebuke to a steward on an ocean liner," declared a congressman of New York.

"One summer I journeyed over to the other side. The first day out, at mealtime, I found that I had to embrace the table leg to get near enough to operate with my knife and fork. For my unpleasant seam I called the steward to account. Most harsh was my criticism. Then I told him I would have my meals served thereafter in the upper cabin.

The next morning the cabin steward told me of a better room and that I should get it immediately. It was more costly and elaborately furnished than the one I occupied with my traveling companion. The next day, it was on the main deck. I looked over the new room and decided to change. I had my luggage, with that of my friend, moved below. When my friend told me the new quarters were better, I said, 'Man alive!' he said, 'This is the worst hole on the ship. You and I are in for a great big seasick.' We got very jar of the ship and good food.

"The day I landed the dining room steward met me on the deck. 'Much obliged for changing,' he said. 'It was my request that the cabin steward get you to the main deck. The gentleman ahead of you in that cabin and who wanted to move gave me $75 to fix the deal. I thank you for what is a most glorious tip.'—Washington Post.

Keekaps.

Washington Irving, who wrote the following lines on the value of trifles, evidently believed in them as emblems of friendship:

"There is something, after all, in those trifles that friends bestow upon each other which is an unfailing indication of the place the giver holds in the affections. I would believe that one who preserved a lock of hair, a simple flower or any trifle of my life, lovingly loved me, though no show was made of it, while all the protestations in the world would not win my confidence in one who set no value on such little things. Trifles they may be, but it is by such that character and disposition are oftenest revealed."

Just For a Change.

"What I want," said the theatrical manager, "is a genuine novelty."

"Something realistic?" asked the playwright.

"Yes, but I don't want any real puppets or real naval disasters or real live stock or real battles in it."

The playwright looked wisely thoughtful and, after a pause, inquired:

"How would it be to spring something on the public with real actors in it?"—London Tri-Bits.

In Training.

"Are you going to mingle in the life of the capital?" asked the old friend.

"I don't know yet," answered Mr. Cumro. "It depends on whether mother and the girls can teach me to out ice cream with a fork without dropping any on my Sunday shirt bosom."—Washington Star.

Bullfighting in Spain.

It was thought that bullfights were gradually losing their popularity in Spain. The reports for the year 1907 seemed indeed to indicate a distinct tendency in that direction. Those for 1908, however, do not confirm this view. In the course of last year 746 bullfights took place in Spain, and 8,838 bulls were killed in the arena. Before dying some of these bulls managed to leave behind something more than the mere record of death, for it is announced that in the contests four of their human opponents were killed and 181 injured.—London Post.

The Hurry Dad.

"Mr. Cleveland," said a Princeton lecturer, "had little sympathy with the rush and hurry that the American business man so emphatically affects—no sympathy with train and boat dispatch, with the lunch table telephone, the letter phono-graph and other bluffs."

"Don't rush me," Mr. Cleveland once said to me. "Lightning might do me great deal more if it wasn't always in such a awful hurry."—Washington Star.

Two belated disciples of Bacchus staggered, as it were, at midnight, down a street about 3 o'clock the other morning. The street was dark, except for a single round glass globe that blazed from a corner of an apartment house. One of the inebriated, spying this lone light, observed:

"Oh, look at that moon!"

The other, who contradicted him, saying: "That ain't no moon, zash sun."

This started an argument, which lasted for several minutes, as to whether the globe was the moon or the sun. Finally they decided to leave it to the first passerby, who happened to be another "happy" gentleman. They stopped him, and pointing to the globe, asked:

"Settle an argument, old pal. Is that the moon or the sun?"

The third party stared knowingly at the globe for several minutes before he shook his head and replied:

"I'm a stranger in this town."

Once More from The Great West

COMES EVIDENCE OF THE GREAT WORK DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS ARE DOING.

Cyrille Maginel Cured of His Rheumatism and Diabetes by the old Reliable Kidney Remedy.

Findlay, Man., (Special).—Cyrille Maginel, a well known farmer living near here, furnishes further evidence of the great work Dodd's Kidney Pills are doing in the west.

I suffered from Rheumatism and Diabetes," Mr. Maginel says in telling the story of his cure. "My sleep was broken and unrefreshing, and I was tired and nervous all the time. I was treated by a doctor but he failed to cure me. Reading that Dodd's Kidney Pills were good for brick sediment in the urine, led me to try them and after using twelve boxes I am as well as I can possibly be. Dodd's Kidney Pills have made a new man of me and I am thankful."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are no cure-all. They cure sick kidneys and that is all that is claimed for them. But sick kidneys are the root of numerous diseases caused by impure blood. For you can't have pure blood with sick kidneys. It is the cure of kidneys to strain the impurities out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Diabetes because it is a kidney disease; they cure Rheumatism because it is caused by sick kidneys failing to strain the uric acid out of the blood.

So Sweet of Him.

A Glasgow man, who was seized by violent toothache, did not succumb any too readily to the gas administered, but in the course of time he was sleeping peacefully, and the offending molar was removed.

"How much," asked the patient, after the ordeal was over.

"Ten shillings," said the dentist.

"Ten shillings!" the man exclaimed.

"Yes, sir," said the dentist. "It was an unusually hard job getting that tooth out, and, as you required twice the ordinary amount of gas."

"Well, here's the money," said the patient.

"But mind this—the next time I take gas in court please don't want to look at the meter."—Tit-Bits.

OBEYED THE DOCTOR.

Did His Best in Keeping a Watch Upon the Patient.

The late Dr. Drummond, the habitant post, once related an amusing anecdote indicative of the simplicity of the rural French Canadian.

He was summing in Megantic county, Que., when, early one evening, he was visited by a young farmer named Leblanc.

"Bon soir, docteur," said Orville by way of greeting. "Ma brudder, Moise, heem ver' sick. You come on d'house for see him, doc?"

Drummond, always kind hearted and obliging, complied with the request of Orville and found the unfortunate Moise suffering from what he diagnosed as a fairly severe case of typhoid.

"Wishing to provide Moise with some medicine," said the doctor-post. "I asked Orville to accompany me back to the village. The prescription compounded, I proceeded to instruct Orville. The dose was to be administered every three hours during the night, and, trying to be as brief, plain and explicit as possible, I said: 'Be sure and keep watch on Moise tonight and give him a teaspoonful of this at 9 o'clock, 12 o'clock and at 3 and 6 in the morning. Come and see me about 9 o'clock in the morning.'"

Orville understood and departed. The following morning he again presented himself, and Drummond asked: "How's Moise? Did you do as I told you?"

"Ma brudder Moise, I tink he some better dan las' night," replied Orville. "I give him de medicine, but I don't have no watch in d'house, doc. I tink d'give clock—don't want mak d'breck deusturb for get up. I keep eet on hees ches' all night. Tink eet do heem good dan, just lak d'watch. Wat you tink, doc?"

THE QUEEN BEE.

Her Household Service the Most Perfect in the World.

"We must go to the bee for the real solution of the servant question," said a housewife. "The queen bee's service is the most perfect in the world. Why, she even has servants who digest her food for her."

"The queen bee is so entirely occupied in egg laying—she lays 2,500 eggs, twice her own weight, daily—that all other things must be done for her."

"And so a corps of servants makes her toilet. This corps all day long cleans and brushes and polishes her person. It is as though her life were passed directed by a corps of beautiful parlor maids."

"Another corps of servants has charge of the air she breathes. The air must be the purest, that her eggs may be the finest. So, standing in a circle about her humming with their wings, these bees make a living ventilating system."

"Her most important servants are perhaps her feeders. Their training may be said to begin before birth, since they must be born, from specially molded eggs, with glands in their throats that reception of bee milk, the chosen primary food of the queen. The feeders stand always at attention, presenting, like a brimming cup, their head glands, swollen with predigested food, to the queen, busy at her task of laying a dozen eggs a minute."

The English Three P's.

We are constantly being misunderstood by the foreigners, says Clarence Rook, and the Frenchman of whom the following story is told contrived to do us something less than justice.

He had been on a visit to this country in order to study at first hand the social manners of the English people. On returning to his native land he was asked by a friend whether he had discovered the meaning of the mysterious "three P's."

"Oh, I found out what they were on the first day of my visit!" he said.

"And what are they, then?"

"Rippon, rotten and right-of!" replied the triumphant Frenchman.—London Mail.

The loss and recovery of a $5,500 pearl necklace related the story of a similar experience which a New York woman had after the last Old Guard ball. She lost it, and when she had discovered the meaning of the mysterious "three P's."

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

MR. AND MRS. DAVID REID.

COLEMAN, ALBERTA.

DEAR SISTER AND BROTHER,
On behalf of Coleman Lodge No. 30, I. O. O. F. we beg leave to extend to you our sincere sympathy in this your sad bereavement.

We are taught that all things are for the best and by placing our trust in Him Who rules on high we may be able to see light through the darkest cloud.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge,
D. G. STAFFORD, Past Grand
H. CLAYTON, Noble Grand

FERNIE MINERS SATISFIED

Fernie, March 30.—All the mines were idle here from Saturday to Monday, while the locals discussed and ballotted on the new agreement recommended by a joint conference at Macleod.

The agreement was ratified by 805 to 540, and the district officials signed the agreement today. It is for two years, and covers all the mines except Nos. 1 and 9. It is practically the same as the former one, but it is claimed that better working conditions will permit a 10 to 15 per cent.
advance. General satisfaction is felt here.

General Manager J. D. Hurd announced that his company intends to raise 8,000 tons daily, and will build 1,000 additional coke ovens. They will open No. 9 mine.
